Any commercial use, sale, or publication of the photographs requires the prior written consent of the Photographer.

6. Cancellation

6.1. By Client

The Client may cancel this Contract at any time before the wedding date. In the event of cancellation, the Client shall be entitled to a refund of all monies paid, excluding the non-refundable deposit.

6.2. By Photographer

The Photographer reserves the right to cancel this Contract at any time. In such an event, the Photographer shall provide a suitable replacement Photographer, subject to the Client's approval. Alternatively, the Photographer shall refund all payments made by the Client, including the non-refundable deposit.

7. Dispute Resolution and Legal Fees

In the unlikely event of a dispute arising from this Contract, the Parties agree to attempt mediation. If mediation fails to resolve the dispute, and legal action ensues, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its legal fees, including attorney's fees.

8. Severability

If any provision of this Contract is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of the Contract shall remain in full force and effect.

9. Legal and Binding Contract

This Contract is legally binding between the Parties as stated above and is effective on the date of signing. Both Parties affirm that they have the authority to enter into this Contract.
